Abstract	Randall J. Newsome attended Boston University for his Bachelor of Arts in 1972 and the University of Cincinnati College of Law for his Juris Doctor in 1975. With 28 years of experience serving as a settlement and bankruptcy judge, Judge Newsome is best known for his intelligent and pragmatic approach to resolving complex matters and he is frequently sought out as a national speaker on topics related to bankruptcy. Judge Newsome devoted much of his career handling local and national bankruptcy issues. Not only was Judge Newsome vocal about bankruptcy reform for consumers, but he was also actively involved with the ongoing legislative battles over bankruptcy reform, particularly during the ever changing Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act (BAPCPA) in the late 1990s. The Randall J. Newsome Papers, 1969-2010, primarily covers Judge Newsome's activities as a Bankruptcy Judge from 1982-2010 as well as his activities as a member and future President of the

National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges (NCBJ).

Biography/History

Randall J. Newsome attended Boston University for his Bachelor of Arts in 1972 and the University of Cincinnati College of Law for his Juris Doctor in 1975. With nearly three decades of experience serving as a settlement and bankruptcy judge, Judge Newsome is best known for his intelligent and pragmatic approach to resolving complex matters and he is frequently sought out as a national speaker on topics related to bankruptcy.

His early career began when he practiced law at Dinsmore & Shohl in Cincinnati, OH, from 1978-1982. Newsome then served as a bankruptcy judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of Ohio Cincinnati, Ohio from October, 1982 to May, 1988. After serving in Ohio, Newsome served as a bankruptcy judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California from 1988-2003. In 2004, Newsome was appointed Chief Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California. He served this position until his retirement in late 2010.

Newsome's professional activities include: serving as Vice-President (1998) and President (1999) of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges (NCBJ); and serving on educational programs for the Federal Judicial Center, ALI-ABA, the NCBJ, Practising Law Institute, American Bankruptcy Institute, Midwest Bankruptcy Institute, American Insolvency and Restructuring Advisors and others.

Scope and Contents

The Randall J. Newsome Papers, 1969-2010, primarily cover Judge Newsome's research, professional activities, and advocacy while he served as a Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court from 1982-2010.

The collection includes papers relating to Newsome's work on bankruptcy education, bankruptcy reform, and advocate for consumer bankruptcy during the 1980s through 2000. Please note that correspondences that indicate attachments or enclosed documents are filed together in order to preserve context.

Collection materials include: correspondence, meeting materials, reports, testimonies, speeches, handwritten notes, oral history files, drafts of bills, markup copies of legislation specifically focusing on the numerous forms of the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act, legislative analysis, Chapter 7 case studies, news clippings, and other materials; materials related to Newsome's legislative activities on the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges Educational Program; papers related to Baldwin-United Bankruptcy in the mid-1980s; papers related to the Emergency Model Rule regarding Congress' slow actions towards restructuring of the bankruptcy court system or judges' jurisdiction after the Marathon Case of 1982; oral history files; and related materials.

In addition, the collection contains two series on non-traditional archival materials. First, a series of photographs of Randall Newsome and his participation in national conferences and meetings from 1987-2004. And second, a series of various computer disks with files pertaining to bankruptcy legislation and photography files.

BANKRUPTCY COURT CRISIS MATERIALS, 1982-1984.

Biographical/Historical note

After the Marathon Pipeline Decision of 1982, Congress wasn't sure if they should restructure the bankruptcy court system or the jurisdiction, powers, and status of the bankruptcy judges. It was apparent that Congress was taking their time which essentially left the bankruptcy courts and the judges in a period of limbo. The Judicial Conference of the United States recommended the Model Rule during this bankruptcy court/judge crisis.

Scope and Contents note

Series consists of materials accumulated during the Post Marathon Pipeline Decision and the Model Rule to govern the operation of the bankruptcy court system until Congress acted.

Materials include: correspondence, pending and proposed legislation, press clippings, publications, government documents, research materials, orders, Congressional Records, and other materials relating to the bankruptcy crisis.
